ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLAND SUNDAY this year falls on Sunday 7 July 2019 and is a significant celebration in our Church's calendar. Whilst providing us with an opportunity to acknowledge our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander brothers and sisters, the celebration also signifies that we are united as one in God's love and care. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholics number over 130,000 and are a growing demographic in our Church today. We must continue to reach out and provide opportunities where we may be enriched and nourished by their deep spirituality, culture and love for Jesus Christ, by opening the doors to our hearts and our homes. In the Gospel of the day Jesus says "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field." Just as Jesus did, we must meet people where they are and walk alongside our First Nation's peoples on their journey to reconciliation and justice.

As Catholics we can set an example for the rest of Australia to follow by coming together as equals and friends in our Schools, Parishes and Organisations in the name of Jesus Christ and in the spirit of mutual respect and unity as one people.

God Bless,

Most Rev Columba Macbeth-Green, OSPPE Chairman Bishops Commission for Relations with Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Peoples Australian Catholic Bishops Conference.

The theme for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday is "Peace to this house and all who dwell within". The NATSICC Liturgy team reflected on the readings and the theme is drawn from Luke 10:1-12. Queenie McKenzie's artwork (left) is the theme image.

In our busy lives, we are often bombarded with competing priorities, distractions, worries and concerns about ourselves and others, which can cause us to forget to take the time to stop, look around, reflect and look for our peace in our lives. Our strong connection to culture and land helps us see the beauty in our world and by sharing this appreciation we are helping share God's love.

The message that NATSICC would like to give you, is to reflect and make time to look for your inner peace in your busy life, and celebrate together with your families, friends and the wider community God's message of peace and love for all.

PARISH OFFICE will be closed on the following dates during the school holidays:
Thursday 4, Friday 5, Thursday 11 and Thursday 18 July.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES READY FOR COLLECTION - We would like to thank all parishioners who join the Planned Giving Program. The new Planned Giving Envelopes are ready and can be collected at the back of the church from this week.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time|

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'" (Luke 10:2)

As Catholics we are all called to serve. However, many of us are unsure of what our charisms or gifts from the Holy Spirit are to help build God's Church.

Through prayer we are able to discern how God is calling us. The next time your pastor or fellow parishioner asks you to join a committee, ask God first, if that is what He wants you to do with your gifts.
